MONEY, MONEY!

Money is scarce we know; but scarce as it is people should not neglect to pay for their paper, advertising and job work. It is impossible to run a printing office without money. We hope therefore, our patrons will give strict attention to this notice, and send us the amount due without delay. It is our intention to send a bill within the next four weeks to every man who owes us, whether the amount be much or little, and we hope every one will respond gracefully and punctually.

DEFAULTING COLLECTORS.

ANOTHER DEMOCRATIC FALSEHOOD EXPOSED AND REFUTED.

During the year 1868, a year in which the Johnson administration had full swing, with a tax upon spirits of two dollars per gallon, a tax upon tobacco of forty cents per pound, a tax upon cotton of from two and a half to three cents per pound, with taxes upon boots and shoes, cloths, clothing, confectionery, furniture, iron in all its various stages of manufacture, leather, oils, saddlery, sugar, soap, fermented liquors, banks, sales, licenses, income, legacies, and successions, stamps, and innumerable other objects—the entire receipts were but $191,180,564,28.

With the incoming administration of General Grant a new tax law went fully into effect. The two on whiskey was reduced from two dollars to fifty cents per gallon, the tax on tobacco was reduced from forty cents to thirty-two per pound, while cotton, boots and shoes, cloths, clothing, furniture, iron, leather, machinery, oils, saddlery, soap, sugar, and one hundred and five articles were entirely exempted and made free. This reduction of taxation taking the collections made from these sources by Johnson as a basis, was equal to $78,000,000; as follows: Reduction in whiskey, $13,500,000; tobacco, 4,500,000; articles exempted, 60,000,000. Total reduction, $78,000,000.

The administration of General Grant came into power, and found the credit of the Government at a low ebb, dishonesty and incapacity throughout all the Executive departments, the public debt daily increasing—and an estimated reduction of $78,000,000 in the annual receipts. How was the credit of the Government to be repaired, its necessary expenses to be met in the face of this reduction? This was a serious and embarrassing question, but by an energetic enforcement of the laws, the appointment only of men of intergrity and capacity to public positions—one that has been grandly and satisfactorily answered.

The tax on spirits yielded the Government, during Johnson's administration, but $18,000,000 per annum. During the first year of Grant's administration the receipts from this source were over $55,000,000, an increase of $37,000,000, or more than two hundred per cent., and this on a reduction of from two dollars to fifty cents per gallon. Johnson collected from tabacco, with the tax at forty cents per pound, but $18,000,000 per annum, while Grant, with the tax at thirty-two cents, has placed in the Treasury over $31,000,000 per annum. And so on through the list, an increase from each specific source. The reduction of $78,000,000, was counterbalanced by Grant's policy, the honest enforcement of the law. And he has done it economically.

In 1868, under Johnson's administration, there was paid to the horde of official, employed to obstruct the revenue laws, the sum of $8,387,763,17, while, during Grant's first year of office, the entire expenses for collecting and assessing the revenue were but $6,916,410,22, a reduction of $2,471,382,93.

A great deal has been said and written about the defalcation of revenue collectors, and of the immense sums due the Government from this source that will never be collected. Democratic stump orators throughout the country have grown eloquent upon this theme; and the recent address of the "Democrats in Congress" to the people, speaks "feelingly" of the $25,000,000 that have been lost in this manner to the tax payers of the country. A few words will explain this matter to the satisfaction of every sane man. Under the law, collectors of Internal Revenue are obliged to receipt monthly to assessors for the various lists of taxes turned over to them for collection. The aggregate amount of these lists are charged to the collector on the books of the Internal Revenue Bureau, and remain charged to the collector who receipted for the same, until they are accounted for either by money deposited or claims that are uncollectible, even though the collector resigns or is removed from office. For example: John Jones is a collector of Internal Revenue. He receipts for taxes to the amount of $100,000, but he has collected only $25,000 of the same, he is removed from office. He turns over the uncollected taxes amounting to $75,000 receipted for by him to his successor, but he (Jones) does not receive credit for the taxes so transferred, until his successor shall have collected the same, or made claim that they are uncollectible, consequently, Jones remains a delinquent upon the books of the Internal Revenue Bureau until this $75,000 of uncollected taxes, turned over by him, shall have been collected, Jones, meanwhile, being powerless in the premises. By this system, large balances appear upon the books of the Internal Revenue Bureau against ex-collectors who do not in fact, owe a dollar, and these are the balances that Democratic demagogues have paraded for the purpose of making political capital. But what are the real balances against these ex-officers, and by whom were the delinquents appointed?

From the official report recently made, it appears that the real balances—the cash balances—reach the sum of exactly $2,768,397,83 less than one-sixth of one per cent of the amount collected under the Internal Revenue laws, and that this sum is secured to the Government by good bonds to the amount of $10,000,000. But who are these defaulting collectors? By whom were they appointed, that the Government has to seek remedy on their bonds? $1,813,757,12 is due from collectors appointed by Johnson; $890,058,95 is due from collectors appointed by Lincoln; $64,580,76 is due from collectors appointed by Grant.

In this connection it will not be inappropriate to reply to the insinuation of a few Democratic stump orators, that the Treasury Department has withheld, unfairly, a statement of the causes which induced the removal of Collectors and Assessors. Certainly, the Department needs no other justification for the change in the personel of those officers, than the facts above related; and when the people remember the condition of that branch of the service during the last year of Johnson's administration, they will only regret that the changes had not been sooner made.

The administration may well dispense with the approval of Democratic leaders when the wisdom of its policy is demonstrated by such official figures as are given above.

The only cause of complaint which the Democracy really have, is, that neither Democrats nor Johnsonized Republicans have been selected for the performance of those important duties, and to that extent, we heartily sympathize with them in their misfortune.

Have we answered you Messrs. Editors of the Watchman and Centre Hall Reporter? We would advise you to attend to getting the county taxes out of the hands of your own defaulting Democratic collectors. Do this and the tax payers of Centre will thank you.

For the REPUBLICAN.

MESSRS. EDITORS.—Please announce the name of Andrew J. Swartz of Spring township, as a candidate for Commissioner, subject to the decision of the approaching Republican County Convention, Mr. Swartz's business qualifications warrant the assertion that he would make an efficient officer and would unquestionably be the right man in the right place. Mr. Swartz's unbounded popularity and personal acquaintance will if nominated make his election a moral certainty.

We would most respectfully submit the above announcement to the consideration of the delegates at the coming County Convention. Comment is unneccesssary. SPRING TOWNSHIP.

The Meekness, Goodnes, Toleration and Forbearance of the Roman Catholic Church with Something that Savors of a Threat

[From the Pittsburgh Catholic.]

The whole country, now after the storm, gives a true and just judgment that the Church utterly condemns these riots, and did all in her power to prevent them. No matter, the persons who had threatened the riots, bore the names of Catholic, little difference what they were in reality. They would hold the Bishops and priests responsible for every drop of blood shed, though the Bishops and priests advised their congregation to let the miserable bigots alone—severely alone. They have tried hard to make it a contest between Protestants and Catholics, the best proof that it is not, is the fact that the President of the Irish Brigade is a Protestant. We don't mind the religious press of this country trying to excite fear of the Catholic Church. We dont much care about the old stereotyped phrases as regards the bigotry, intolerance, and tyranny of the church. These are all very well in their way. They please the readers, and this is all the editor wishes or cares about. But there is one thing we do mind, and it would be well for those whom it concerns to give it a little more attention. That is, when a commercial paper, whose aim is to become the favorite in the business community, turns from its course to pander to the bigotry of a certain class of its readers. Week after week, yes, we might justly say, day after day, its columns are filled with the vilest abuse, the most disgraceful and most palpable calumnies against a Church which two hundred millions of souls love dearer than their lives. We have not a word to say in regard to the editor of this paper, neither would we condescend to pass a word with the writer of these articles, whose education among the scum of New York fits him well for this dirty work. But we have a word for another class—the proprietors. The owners of the paper are bankers, and men from various branches of business. Their success depends on the good will of all classes, and hence it will not be safe to insult continually any one class of our citizens. We merely make these remarks by way of suggestion, and a word to the wise, &c.

But we do not fear the judgment of all honest men in regard to the part the Church took in these scenes. Her mission, her influence here, as in all cases of the like cast, was one of peace.

No law, no maxim of her holy code, permits her children to hate, to persecute, any human being. The maxims of her Divine Master and Head, Christ, and her maxims, and they teach patience, not persecution; persuasion and instruction, not violence. With these beautiful principles of Jesus Christ emblazoned on her banners, she has passed from land to land, bearing gifts and showing herself ever a friend and a mother of the oppressed and downtrodden. Open her history, and its every page sparkles with deeds of mercy, kindness and charity. All peoples have felt her soothing influence amid their days of trouble, and called her blessed. Not a single cruel, a single unjust, or a single tyrannical act sullies the virgin page of her record. Some of her children in the heat of passion, may have, indeed have, committed acts shameful, disgraceful and cruel, but her every principal condemns their conduct. We judge a society by its teaching, its doctrines and the means of putting these doctrines to a practical test. Her doctrines are as pure as heaven, since they came from God, her Sacraments make the soul shine with ever renewed beauty since they have their efficiency from the blood of Christ. Let men but learn her doctrines, frequent her Sacraments, and we'll have no bloodshed.

THE Boston Pilot (Catholic) concludes an excellent article on the Orange riot as follows:

There are two ways of getting rid of this apple of discord. The first is by an agreement between the general Irish population and the Orangemen foregoing all right to parade, and expressing their determination never to hold processions for Irish political objects alone. This, we may rest assured, will not be easily agreed to. The second one is the best, and the one that must come in the end, when America, tired out and indignant with her squabbling population, puts her foot down with a will and tells them all Germans, French, Irish, Orange—"You have had enough now. There is only one flag to be raised in future in this country, and that flag is the stars and stripes."

THE NEW YORK IRISH ON GOV. HOFFMAN.

A TIGHT PLACE FOR A DEMOCRATIC PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE TO BE IN.

For a Presidential candidate Governor Hoffman is decidedly in a bad box. The Irish weekly papers of New York city brim over with denunciation and invective because of his action with regard to the New York riots. Isn't this a pleasant dish to set before a Governor who wants to be President, and knows himself to be dependent on the votes of the very persons who gnash their teeth at him, hang him in effigy, and call him murderer?

[From the Irish People.]

"The blood curdles at the thought of such atrocity, and if such a thing as justice is to be found in this land of boasted liberty, that justice must now be sought for, to impeach John T. Hoffman, and try him for the wilful murder of those whose deaths were caused by his action at New York on Wednesday, the 12th of July, 1871. We call upon the friends of the murdered citizens, by every duty which they owe to society and to themselves, to raise thier issue at the proper tribunals of the country, and to cite Gov. Hoffman before a jury of his peers to answer to a charge of murder!"

[From the Irish Citizen.]

"It is a matter of regret that Mr. Hoffman has thus gone over to the Orangemen, because this bloody blunder wipes him out as a public man. Many had even good hope he might be our next President; but that is all over; if his party now were mad enough to put him in nomination he could never get one Irish Catholic vote, not one."

[From the Irish World.]

"Perhaps this Dutchman, Hoffman, felt in that hour the influence of common affinity, and deemed it obligatory on him to stand by his distant relatives—the Anglo Orange Goths—who are ever true to the "glorious, pious and immortal memory" of William, the Dutch adventurer. And this man dares to vail his diabolical acts under cover of law and order. We charge that he has violated law and broken a special statute in this very instance. Out upon the wretch! Let his name sink forever in the nostrils of all the true and the good! Let the cry of the orphan, whose home he has left disconsolate, blast him! and let the hot tear of the widow, whose heart he has made sore, rot him in his pride of place and imperious despotism! The greatest mistake made in the whole massacre business seems to be that Mayor Hall did not arrest John T. Hoffman for interfering with the peace of the city."

[From the Freeman's Journal.]

"The 'sober second thought' of the people lately so excited, will consign John T. Hoffman to the obscurity from which he has risen by lucky manœverings. John T. Hoffman, Governor of the State—by the leniency of Tammany Hall—was off bathing his long mustache at Newport or elsewhere—a spoiled baby of Tammany Hall. These pork and whisky speculators—produce merchants—poor devils that no tailor would trust for a coat, dictated a rule of law for Gov. John T. Hoffman. Telegrams—costing twenty-five cents in currency—went to him in plenty. Poor Gov. John T. Hoffman was frightened at the array of men that had twenty-five cents to send telegrams to him."

Similar language is used by all the Irish journals of the city. Two of them appear dressed in mourning, and among the headings of their editorials are, "Hoffman's Holocaust," "Hoffman's Massacre," Hoffman's Bloody Procession," Hoffman a Murderer," and other equally startling titles, the unanimity of Irish sentiment, as expressed through these journals, being absolutely perfect. Hoffman has committed political hari-kari.

THE Western Catholic says of the Orangemen: "We question their taste in celebrating an event which, though remote, is still remembered with passionate anger by a large number of their fellow-citizens; but in this difference our right of critisism ends. They are not responsible to us for their taste. Their action is foolish; but their is no law, that we have heard, against foolishness which is unattended by an overt breach of the peace. The Orangemen have as much legal right to celebrate the anniversary of the battle of the Boyne as we Catholics have to celebrate the Pope's Jubilee, St. Patrick's Day, or any other festival, and they have a perfect right to choose any method of celebrating it which pleases them, so long as their programme does not include riotous conduct or speech, or any interference with the property or persons of their neighbors." And this is sensible. We give full credit to Roman Catholic sources for such utterance.

THE members of the Principal religious denominations of the world are estimated as follows: Greek Church. 69,692,700; the six other Oriental Churches 6,500,000; Roman Catholics, 195,000,000; Protestants, 98,149,000; Mohammedans, 160,000,000; Buddhists 340,000,000; other Asiatic religions, 260,000,000; Pagans, 200,000,000; Jews, 6,000,000.

[From the Clinton Republican.]

SHALL THE REPUBLICAN PARTY OF CLINTON COUNTY NOMINATE THIS FALL?

BEECH CREEK, July 12, 1871.

ED. CLINTON REPUBLICAN.—I have heard several leading Republicans of late suggest the policy of making no nominations for county officers this Fall. Upon that subject, as well as upon some general principles, will you allow me a small space in the Republican, that the party in general may get the idea, and express their views on the subject of putting no county ticket in the field next Fall.

Buried as we are, by an unfair Democratic apportionment, under large majorities, both in Senate and Legislative districts, together with a party to contend against in Clinton county who throw every principle of justice aside for the sake of party, it seems unfair to compel good men to allow their names to be used as candidates for county offices and be put to the trouble of conducting a campaign. We have a good State ticket, upon a platform which every Republican must cheerfully endorse; our record is one that no patriot or lover of liberty will ever be ashamed of, and where is the Republican patriot that looks back over the deeds of the last fifteen years and draws a contrast between then and now, and looks at the struggles had with the Democratic party, North and South, in that period of time, who cannot with pride and a sense of duty well done, say that we have made for ourselves a record that the "new departure" Democrats should not be permitted to steal. We say upon such a record, platform and candidates as we now have, we can rally our full strength, without a county ticket, well assured of success next fall in the State.

Do not the signs of the times betoken the return of unity and harmony in the Republican ranks in the county and State, as well as all over the nation?

The immediate cause of this is the determination of the Democratic party to adhere to the creed and policy which have formed the basis of its actions heretofore. The depravity of the leaders of that party is such that they seem to have not the foresight to perceive, nor the patriotism to desire an abandonment of the basis upon which that political organization has rested in the past. To prove that these are facts we have only to refer to the Democratic Conventions of the States of Pennsylvania and Ohio.—When a step would be taken forward by the progressive wing of that party, what a wail comes up from the old wheel horses of that political organization. And even here in Clinton county we see Democratic candidates in announcing their names for county offices, assuring their friends that they are no new departure Democrats. "Shall we not let them alone? They are joined to their idols."

The Republican party has still the affection and confidence of the majority of the American people. It has not found all its agents and servants either as wise or as faultless as it could desire, but the purposes of the party in general are so manifestly patriotic and pure, and the aims of the opposite party so unpatriotic and mischievous that the people will give to the party of freedom and union a hearty and unflinching support, even should there be no county ticket nominated.

Republicanism plants itself upon this platform that in giving the ballot to the colored citizen, it wronged no man, but in doing so obeyed the dictates of justice, humanity and patriotism. The emancipation and enfranchisement of a large class of inoffensive and law-abiding citizens was a noble-deed, which, considering what it cost may well immortalize the Republican party, and it is an act which only men of despotic principles and ideas will object to. Hence, when the Democratic party taunt us that we gain victory often by colored voters, we do not wish to deny it. The Republican party gained this accession of strength by fair means, and not by frauds and outrages on law and justice, such as the city of New York is carried by, and such as that by which the Ku Klux of the South are trying to regain lost power.

A wholesome regard for the wishes of the laboring masses, a firm and independent course by the Republican press, and a carrying out of the State and general government will secure a succession of splendid victories next fall and enable us to poll our full strength without any ticket for this county.—Despite a tendency in some portions of our county to divide on minor and trivial questions, and mistakes of unwise politicians, the Republican party is still the ruling party in this State and the United States.

Although the people know that there may be some defects in the policy of the Republican administration of affairs and everything is not done as they might wish—notwithstanding these small defects in policy of the ruling party, they well know that there is no remedy in the Democratic organization. When that party was last trusted with the ship of State they robbed the treasury, stole her arms and Arnold-like betrayed her defences and sold them to her enemies, carrying them the intelligence, and publishing to the world that the old ship of State must go down. They have been trusted in Clinton county and the result is known to its citizens in the burdens that are being imposed upon them year after year in the shape of taxes for county purposes. And the people know full well that the Democratic party offers no apology for its past misdeeds; shows no signs of repentance for the wrongs it has perpetrated on the people or for its errors or shortcomings, but simply asks its restoration to power, that it may again launch the ship of State upon a fathomless ocean of trouble and discord.

But we feel satisfied that neither State nor general government will risk again a voyage under any navigators that party may furnish; but in Clinton county we say, leave them alone for the present; it may take more than nine days for them to get their eyes open—but open they must come and will come in county as they did in National affairs.

J. M. G.

For the REPUBLICAN.

HALF MOON, July 28th, 1871.

COL. W. W. BROWN:—

Sir.—We were pleased to notice in the REPUBLICAN of the 12th inst., a letter signed by some of the best men in Unionville asking you to be a candidate for Assembly this fall. We write for the purpose of endorsing every word therein contained and assuring you that you are the man that we wish to honor. For years you have borne the brunt of the battle and contended nobly when the courage of others failed. For years you have been the untireing friend of the working men. In their interest you have never flinched or wavered. We insist on you being a candidate, believing that if harmony prevails in the great Republican party you can be elected, notwithstanding the county generally gives 400 Democratic majority, for there are men in both political parties who will support you, and especially the working men whose sympathies you have. With our best wishes for your success and the success of our invincible party we are, dear sir, Yours &c.

JOHN H. LEVER,
BENJAMIN LIGHTNER,
S. SELLERS,
G. P. MATTERN,
And many others.

UNION TWP., July 29, 1871.

COL. W. W. BROWN:

Dear Sir:—We see by the REPUBLICAN of the 19th ult., that some of the sound Republicans of Unionville have requested you to run for the legislature, at the next October election. We of the township are sorry we did not have an opportunity of signing that request, and now propose to make it unanimous:

WM. IDDINGS,
HARVEY HOOVER,
REUBEN L. UNDERWOOD,
DAVID UNDERWOOD.

P. S.—We could, if we had time, add many more good Republicans to the list, and we take the liberty of saying that Union township is unanimous in your favor.

ALABAMA CLAIMS.—We are informed that the most persistent and unyielding of the private citizens who have claims vs. the British Government are Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., of Lowell, Mass., the manufacturers of medicines. They will consent to nothing less than that their demand for medicines destroyed by the British pirates shall be paid in gold and in dollars to the last cent. They are emboldened by the fact that the destruction of their goods by the English in China and elsewhere (for where are not that troublesome nation trampling upon somebody?) have hitherto been paid in full, and they now say that they shall be. They however propose this compromise:—Give us Canada and we will call it even, because we can then send our remedies there without duty.—[Washington News.

BELLEFONTE REPUBLICAN.

BELLEFONTE, PA.

TWENTY YEARS.

She nears the land—the boat that brings
  My wand'ring boy again to me;
The sturdy rowers lend her wings,
  And now each sunburnt face I see.
Among them all I marked not him—
  It is not that with rising tears
My watchfull eyes are weak and dim;
  It is the lapse of twenty years.

He left me when a little lad,
  A lad! a babe; I see him now.
I hear his voice so frank and glad,
  I stroke the curls upon his brow.
My son returns across the main,
  But brings not back the time that's fled;
I shall not hear the voice again,
  I shall not pat the childish head.

Perhaps a trace I yet may find
  Of boyhood in his look or tone;
A glance—an accent to remind
  Me still of hopeful visions gone.
His mother's smile may greet me, when
  We hold each other hand in hand,
His mother's voice may echo then
  A blessing from the spirit land.

The boat comes on; a minute more
  She'll grate upon the beach. And see,
Who rises now to spring on shore?
  Who waves his cap a loft? 'Tis he.
No more I look in wistful doubt
  As in the man the child appears;
His earnest gaze, his joyful shout,
  Have bridged the lapse of twenty years.

ADDRESS.

Of the Republican State Committee of Pennsylvania.

The Republican party, in appealing once more to the people of this State for their support, points with just pride to its record, and it fearlessly claims the renewed confidence of the people because it has been faithful to its trust, and is committed to the only line of policy that can secure continued presperity to the State and Nation.

The Republicans of this State first carried both branches of the legislature in 1859, and first elected a Governor in 1860. Since then it has held control of the legislative and executive branches of the government until last winter, when the Democrats obtained control temporarily, of the Senate.

In 1861, when Gov. Curtin came into office, the State Debt, in round numbers, was $40,000,000. Shortly afterwards the Southern Rebellion broke out, and the State was compelled to borrow $3,500,000, to arm the troops and protect our borders, thus adding that much to the State Debt.

In the ten years that have since passed away, this war loan of $3,500,000 has been paid off; the State Debt has been reduced from $40,000,000 to a little over $29,000,000; the three mill tax which was levied for State purposes on real estate prior to 1861 has been repealed; the tax on professions and occupations has been taken off; the annual contribution of the State to the Public Schools has been greatly enlarged; a system of schools has been built up for the education and support of the orphans of soldiers who died in the war—a noble benefaction, costing over half a million yearly; and the affairs of the State, generally, have been so managed as to secure prosperity to the people.

The Republicans of the nation elected their Presidential candidate in 1860, and succeeded, against many angry threats from the opposition, in putting him in office in March, 1861. Almost immediately afterwards the government was confronted by an armed rebellion in the South, (openly as well as secretly encouraged by many Democrats in the North, whose sympathies still remain with those who then took arms to overthrow the government,) and was compelled to maintain the honor of the national flag and the integrity of the country at whatever cost; and the four years' war which followed necessarily entailed a heavy debt and burdensome taxation upon the people.

Since the suppression of the rebellion, the country has not only returned to peace but to prosperity. The fears of many that the nation would be bankrupted, her industry paralyzed, and her people ruined, have not been realized. No people ever recovered so soon, so steadily and so surely, from the consequences of the war, as we have done; and for this recovery from the destructive influences of civil strife we are mainly indebted to the fostering hand held out by the national government to the industries of the people.

Among the necessities growing out of the Rebellion the National Government found itself compelled to submit to the States for their ratification, three amendments to the Constitution—one (known as the thirteenth) abolishing slavery; another, (the fourteenth,) securing the rights of citizens to the enfranchised slaves, and prohibiting the repudiation of any part of the National debt, or the payment of any part of the Rebel debt; and another (the fifteenth) prohibiting the States from excluding any one from the right of sufirage on account of race, color, or previous condition of servitude.

These three amendments having all been duly ratified in the method pointed out by the Constitution, are now a component part of that instrument. Their adoption stands as the grandest peaceful achievement of ancient or modern times. No party ever before undertook so great a task; and its accomplishment, in so short a space of time, is a work of which the Republican party may well feel proud.

To secure the complete protection of these emancipated and enfranchised people is now one of the unquestioned duties of the nation; and no party is so fit to be entrusted with that duty as the party which has done the preliminary work. The party which has hitherto continuously resisted the policy thus established, is not the one, now, to carry it out.

During the war for suppressing the Rebellion, and in carrying out the great measures which have necessarily flowed from it, the Democratic party has continuously been in the opposition. It opposed the adoption of stringent measures to put down the Rebellion; the levying of troops to suppress it; the borrowing of money to pay the cost of the war; the Emancipation Proclamation of President Lincoln; the adoption of all the amendments to the Constitution; the reconstruction measures by which the revolted States were brought back into the Union; and, generally, every measure necessary to the successful prosecution of the war, or to the successful restoration of peace.

At present,too, it is opposed to the means necessary for raising revenue to pay the interest of the public debt, and secure its steady reduction; is in favor of a semi-repudiation of that debt by paying it in a depreciated currency, if paid at all; is watching for an opportunity to annul the new amendments to the Constitution; and is generally committed to any line of policy which will remit the country to its condition prior to 1860.

It may be urged, here, that the Democratic party of this State, in the ninth resolution of the platform adopted by its late State Convention, has acquiesced in the adoption of the amendments of the Constitution we have referred to, and cannot be now charged with hostility to them. We answer that the acquiescence expressed in that resolution has not, itself, been acquiesced in by the rank and file of the party. Over one-third of the Convention voted strenuously against it, and the action of the Convention has since been repudiated by many leading men and journals of the party. Besides, whatever acquiescence has been given, has been given sullenly and not heartily—as a matter of policy, springing from party necessity, and not from a conviction of its propriety. Wherever a vote has been honestly given, or voice sincerely raised for this "new departure," it may very properly be regarded as an extorted confession that the Republican party has all along been right in what the Democratic party has steadily opposed; and this confessed, what need is there, or can there be, for the further existence of the Democratic party?

When Gen. Grant came into office, in 1869, he announced his determination to secure the honest and faithful collection of the revenue, the steady reduction of the public debt, and such an abatement in taxation as was consistent with this policy. In the space of little over two years this determination, faithfully adhered to, has resulted in paying off $230,000,000 of the public debt, and in the abolition of nearly all the taxes imposed under previous laws.

In addition to this he has, by his wise and firm foreign policy, succeeded in settling all our outstanding difficulties with Great Britain, in a manner alike honorable and advantageous to us as a people. The treaty, lately ratified by both nations, which removes all causes of quarrel, and establishes peace and amity between them, has commanded the admiration of the civilized world, and placed the United States in the foremost rank among the nations of the earth. This result is one of which every American may justly feel proud.

To continue the Republican party in power is to continue the policy begun, both in State and Nation, of maintaining the public credit, paying off our debt reducing taxation, settling international difficulties without bloodshed, and sustaining the great principles involved in the measures necessarily growing out of the war.

To restore the Democratic party to power is to destroy the public credit, pave the way for repudiation, bring in the old tide of corruption, mismanagement and extravagance, and open up anew all the questions involved in the reconstruction of the southern States, now settled upon an honorable basis.

For present proof of this we refer to the consequences flowing from the accidental majority of the Democrats in the State Senate last winter. To that fact we owe a session prolonged to the middle of May, at an extra cost of $100,000; the re-establishment of the forsaken policy of employing extra (and useless) officers in the Legislative bodies and granting them extra pay; an appropriation bill increased beyond all former bounds, to the extent of half a million; the defeat of all measures for calling a Constitutional Convention at an early day to put an end to that curse of our State, Special Legislation; and, as if determined to show that this curse should not be removed by their aid, the enactment of the enormous number of 1800 local bills. And this is but a tithe of what we should have had to endure had they had both Houses and the Governor on their side.

A still further proof of the unfitness of that party to be entrusted with power is to be found in the melancholy history of the late riots in New York. In that city the Democrats have undisputed sway, and, through it, in the State. They had the power in their hands to prevent this riot and blood-shed, but they would not use it either at the right time or in the right way. Why? Because the party is possessed of no principle which can lead it to respect the rights of man, be they civil or religious. Its sole idea of rights is derived from the maxim that might makes right. This was clearly evinced in the debate in our State Senate, in 1869, on the Fifteenth Amendment, in which the Democratic leader in the State scouted the claim that there were any such things, as human rights. The idea, he said, was a myth and a humbug.

And this sentiment of the Democratic leader in Pennsylvania has been carried out to the letter in New York. A few thousand men, in the exercise of their Constitutional right to assemble together, inform the authorities of their purpose to parade the streets on a certain day. Another body of men, who always vote the Democratic ticket, and numbering many more thousands, notify the authorities that this parade must not be permitted, and that if it is, they will attack it and disperse it, no matter at what cost of life or limb to the party attacked. The Democratic rulers of New York at once decline to defend the few against the many in the exercise of their Constitutional right; deny that there is any such right; yield to the defiance of the mob, because it has might on its side, and, at the demand of that mob, forbid the peaceable and law-abiding citizens to assemble together, as the Constitution permits, or to exercise the rights which the law allows.

It is true that at the last hour, when the public indignation had been aroused at this base abandonment of the civil rights of the people, the State authorities stepped in and permitted what the city authorities had previously forbidden; but the mob had already triumphed too far to yield peacefully to this sudden change, and the slaughter which followed is attributable solely to the official cowardice which first yielded to a mob it was afterwards unable to control.

It is plain, moreover, that the first act, of prohibiting the parade, was the legitimate outgrowth of the principles controlling the Democratic party, that men have no inherent rights and that might alone gives right. It brought into view the ferocious claws which, though afterwards withdrawn, the furred foot could not wholly conceal. It was a clear indication of what we may expect throughout the country should the Democratic party ever return to power.

If our civil and religious rights are to be preserved in this country against the attacks of turbulent mobs and the demands of a wild fanaticism they can be preserved only by the party based immovably on a deep regard for Human Rights and Constitutional guarantees; and in the light of these facts we appeal to the people of Pennsylvania to rally to the support of their imperilled Constitutional franchises, and by the defeat of the Democratic party, which has proven itself alike unwilling and unable to uphold them, teach it that the people will bear no yielding to mob violence nor tampering with their constitutional rights, and will never permit the surrender of the citadel they have erected at a bloody cost sacred, now and forever, to Civil and Religious Liberty.

GAMING.—Of all passions gaming is the most dangerous and inexcusable. A gamester endeavors to enrich himself with the spoils of those he calls his friends. But how many armies are in arms against him? Behold that mother! Her tears repoach him with the ruin of her only son! That father pronounces his name with horror and contempt to his children! Pursued by hatred, overwhelmed by calumny, he feels himself condemned by reason and humanity; and, after wandering long in the mazes of vice, he finds nothing before his eyes but ruin and remorse.

MASONIC.—The strength of the Masonic order in the United States, as reported by the Committee on Correspondence of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania, aggregated as follows: Number of Lodges, 7,495; members intiated during the last year, 41,936; total number of members in thirty-eight States and one Territory, 466,802. The order is strongest in New York, where there are 650 lodges and 75,262 members. Illinois comes next, with 606 lodges and 33,996 members. Pennsylvania has 310 lodges and 32,958 members.

ABOUT THE WEDDING RING.—The wedding ring is put on the fourth finger of the woman's hand because, in the original formulary of marriages, it was placed on the top of the thumb with the words "In the name of the Father," then on the next finger with the words, "and of the Son," and on the middle finger with, "and of the Holy Ghost," and finally on the fourth with the "Amen."

Anecdotes of Public Men.

BY COL. J. W. FORNEY.

NO. XXIII.

[From the Washington Sunday Chronicle.]

Last week I told you something about the old men of Philadelphia. Now let me write familiarly and frankly of a younger citizen—one who is, perhaps, as generally discussed as any living person. There is a mystery about him which is rather increased by the fact that he is a quiet though incessant worker—not often seen, yet as ubiquitous as if he possessed the power of repeating himself indefinitely. I mean Thomas Alexander Scott, vice president of the Pennsylvania C. R. R., or as he is everywhere called, by high and low, from the president to the proletaire—"Tom Scott." Filling a large space in a large enterprise, wielding immense resources, combining extraordinary elements, and dealing literally with empires, Col. Scott, is still comparativety young, and qualified, with ordinary care over his reserved forces, physical and mental, for a long and most distinguished life. His experience is another illustration of the elasticity of our institutions; another proof that when the offspring of the wealthy, spoiled and enervated by over-indulgence, fall to grapple with grave duties and responsibilities, we can always find fitter material in the humbler walks, and recruit the energies of the nation from the sons of those who have been hardened in the stern school of necessity and toil.

Thomas Alexander Scott was born in the village of London, Franklin county, Pennsylvania, on the 28th of December, 1824, and on his next birthday will be 47 years old. He began as a boy in a country store at a very low salary, after having completed his education in the one village school, with the one teacher, Robert Kirby, of London; and upon the death of his father, in 1834, went to live with his eldest sister, whose husband kept a country store near Waynesborough, in Franklin county, where he remained eighteen months; then he lived a short time with his brother James D. Scott, also a merchant at Bridgeport, in the same county; then with Metcalf & Ritchie, merchants in Mercersburg. In all these situations, he exhibited the same energy and had the confidence and respect of employers and associates for the ability and correctness now so universally awarded to the man. In all his past history his frank, honest, candid, clear, prompt manner in business transactions has deservedly secured him the confidence and respect of the business world—above all, his goodness of heart, the measure of his favors and charities being the necessities of his friends. My first recollection of him was in Lancaster county, where he was a clerk of Majoy James Patton, his brother-in-law, who was collector of tolls at Columbia, on the State Road, under the administration of Gov. Porter, I think, in the year 1838. From this he was transferred to the extensive establishment of the Leeches, at Columbia, where he remained until 1847, when he came to Philadelphia as chief clerk under A. Boyd Cummings, collector of tolls at the eastern end of the Public Works. In 1850 he entered the service of the great Pennsylvania Central at Duncanville as their general agent of the Mountain or Eastern division. On the opening of the Western division he was put in charge of that, and there he remained till he was called to take control of the entire line, in consequence of the ill health of Gen. H. J. Lombaert, the superintendent. In 1859, on the death of Hon. William B. Foster, vice president of the road, he was elected to that position, which he continues to fill.

There is no romance in this career, and yet how few now living excite so much curiosity and attract so much attention as Thomas Alexander Scott! His rapidity and courage alike as an administrative and executive officer have given him a prestige known wherever a railroad is operated. It was these qualities that induced the administration to call him into the Government service as Assistant Secretary of War after the outbreak of the rebellion; and these of us who studied him then can well understand how thoroughly he deserves his present high reputation. He was summoned to Washington in 1861, at a period when the whole North was panic stricken—when the Capital was cut off by the rebels lying between it and the Susquehanna. A man of railroad genius, fact, and experience was imperatively needed. Governor Curtin wanted him to remain in Pennsylvania, but Mr. Lincoln, the Secretary of war, and Gen. Scott insisted that the young vice president of the Pennsylvania Central should be forthcoming; and he came, and effectually aided Gen. Butler, then at Annapolis with his Massachusetts men, to build the road which opened the way and restored the line of communication, and so saved Washington from capture. He remained at his desk in the War Department, unless when called off to superintend the vast military transportation of the army at other points, until the crisis was over, and then returned to his post at Phila., surrounded with the confidence and gratitude of every branch of the Government, executive and legislative. His cheerful and buoyant temper, his bright face, genial, gentle manners, and above all, the readiness with which he answered every request, and the grace with which he would say No, as he had freqxently to do, proved that official labors came easy and natural to him, and that the cares so sure to break down an ordinary man bore lightly upon him. It was pleasant to note how quietly he met the leaders of armies and the leaders of the Senate, and how in every circle, no matter what the theme, he was unconstrained and self-poised. Perhaps one of the secrets of his popularity was his avoidance of all political discussions. Intensely attached to his country, Col. Scott is claimed by no party and has as many friends in one as in the other. His early training was among Democrats, though many of his nearest connections were Old-line Whigs, and are Republicans. As the real head of an enterprise which is gradually assuming more than international proportions, and must depend for its success upon the support of the whole people, he has little time to play at the petty politics of the hour. He possesses two inborn gifts, uncommon to one who has not seen the inside of a school-house since his eleventh year—intuitive mathematical perception and singular ability in preparing legislation. He despatches business with electric facility. He dictates to his short-hand reporter as rapidly as an expert, and when he rises to speak in any of the business conventions, his suggestions are so many flashes of intellect, and his sentences short, terse, and clear. He is happy in the capacity of getting rid of difficult questions in a moment. One subject dropped, he seizes the other at the proper time, and is as punctual to a promise, an engagement, or a contract, as he is faithful to a friend.

Some time ago, in one of the managers' cars of the Pennsylvania Central, I sat by, a surprised and amused observer. At every station despatches would be brought to him, which he tore open and promptly answered, and then resumed the thread of the conversation. Sometimes a railroad president or official, belonging to another State, would come in at the door while the train waited, state his case, and receive his reply. Sometimes a negotiation would be conducted between the stations, and yet, at the end of every such passage, he would move over to me, where I sat, and renew his pleasant and instructive talk.

Such are some of the leading traits of T. A. Scott, or "Aleck," as he used to be called while transacting business for his friend Metcalf, in Franklin county. It is proper to add that no man has ever been more endeared to his associates in business. I wish I could refer to instances of his generosity to his family and to his friends, but this is a subject upon which he is a little sensitive; and yet he never seems to tire in doing good—never forgets the intimates of his early career, the men who served with him when he was a clerk, agent, or superintendent. Although overwhelmed with engagements, he never allows a case of suffering or misfortune to pass him unheaded. It deserves to be said that in his capacity as the active head of a gigantic corporation, he has never gambled with its great interests at the stock exchange, never corrupted judges or juries, never turned what belonged to others to selfish or to mercenary ends; and it is undoubtedly to his exact, accurate, and inflexible business principles that the great Pennsylvania Central is chiefly indebted for its sound and increasing prosperity.

I conclude this hasty sketch of my old friend by relating an incident of his promptitude. Some years ago, when his presence was necessary at an extraordinary crisis in the affairs of the company, he started from Pittsburg on an express train, and found himself, after some hours' travel, obstructed by another train which had run off the track. The debris, the fragments, and confusion produced by the accident would have required at least a day for their removal. The engineers were in despair. After a moment's reflection the Colonel directed that the whole of the wreck should be burned, and the torch was applied to the valuable machinery, cars, and goods, that lay scattered around. Of course he made his destination, but when he reached the company and told his story, there was some indignation at what they regarded a waste of property. Col. Scott sat down and soon convinced them by a calculation estimating the loss that would accrue by the delay of trains, &c., that he had really saved a considerable sum by the transaction.

The brain-work of a man like Colonel Scott is immense, but he enjoys the rare facility of dismissing troublesome questions from his mind. He never takes his sorrow with him to bed. When his day's work is done he retires with a sunny face to his home, enjoys the society of his family, plays croquet or whist, rides around the Park, looks in at the opera, and now and then mingles with a company of his friends. Of simple habits and refined tastes, he ought to live a long life. That he may so live is my sincere and earnest prayer.

THE slumber of an Irish gentleman being disturbed by another gentleman who had come to administer a horse-whipping, he asked him whether he meant to be so unmanly as to flog him while in his bed. "Certainly not," was the visitor's reply. "Well, then," rejoined the other, quietly rolling himself up very snugly in the bed-clothes, "you may wait as long as you please, but hang me if I'll get up while you're in the house."

Medical.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

For Diseasses of the Throat and Lungs, Such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Coughs, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometimes subject to cold and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

Singers and Public Speakers find great protection from it.

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.

Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.

So generally are its virtues known that we need not publish the certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained.

Ayer's Ague Cure,

For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons.

As its name implies, it does Cure, and does not fail. Containing neither Arsenic, Quinine, Bismuth, Zinc, nor any other mineral or poisonous substance whatever, it in nowise injures any patient. The number and importance of its cures in the ague districts, are literally beyond account, and we believe without a parallel in the history of ague medicine. Our pride is gratified by the acknowledgements we receive of the radical cures effected in obstinate cases, and where other remidies had wholly failed.

Unacclimated persons, either residence in, or travelling through miasmatic localities, will be protected by taking the Ague Cure daily.

For Liver Complaints, arise from torpidity of the Liver, it is an excellent remedy, stimulating the Liver into healthy activity.

For Bilious Disorders and Liver complaints, it is an excellent remedy, producing many truly remarkable cures, where other medicines had failed.

Perpared by DR. J. C. AYER & CO., Practical and Analytical Chemists, Lowell, Mass., and sold all round the world.

PRICE, $1,00 PER BOTTLE.

SOMETHING NEW
UNDER THE SUN.
A New Era In Medicine.

☞ Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctors, and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts, and can have faith in evidence, read the following.

Know all men by these presents. That, on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-six, personally came Joseph Haydrick to me known as such, and being duly sworn deposed as follows: "That he is the sole general agent for the United States and dependencies thereof for preparations or medicines known as Dr. Maggiel's Pills and Salve, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMEITRE, Notary Public,
[L.S.] 14 Wall St. New York.

June 1st, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, Doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss. JAMES MYERS,
116 Avenue, D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
NEW YORK, April 7, 1866. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me, by him, about eight weeks after the accident:

NEW YORK, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder. I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal: I tried Maggiel's Salve and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true and anybody can see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 3d Avenue.

J. HARDY, 119 Greeck St.

EXTRACTS FROM VARIOUS LETTERS.

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvellous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your Pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured.'

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears, and the noise has left."

"Send me two boxes, I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar, your price is 25 cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your Pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Pills by return mail."

I Have over 200 such Testimonials as these, but want of space compels me to conclude.

FOR CUTANEOUS DISORDERS,

And all erruptions of the skin, the SALVE is most invaluable. It does not heal externally alone, but penetrates with the most searching effects to the very root of the evil.

DR. MAGGIEL'S PILLS

Invariably cure the following Diseases: Asthma, Bowel Complaints, Coughs, Colds, Chest Diseases, Costiveness, Dyspepsia, Diarrhea, Dropsy, Debility, Fever and Ague, Female Complaints, Headache, Indigestion, Influenza, Inflammation, Inward Weakness, Liver Complaints, Lowness of Spirits, Ring Worm, Rheumatism, Scalds, Skin Diseases, Salt Rheum, etc.

ψυχη Psychomancy. This word is derived from the Greek, signifying the power of the soul, spirit or mind, and is the basis of all human knowledge. Psychomancy is the title of a new work of 400 pages, by Herbert Hamilton, B. A., giving full instructions in the science of Soul Charming and Psychologic Fascination; how to exert this wonderful power over men or animals instantaneously, at will. It teaches Mesmerism, how to become Trance or Writing Mediums, Divination, Spiritualism, Alchemy, Philosophy of omens and Dreams, Brigham Young's Harem, Guide to Marriage, &c. This is the only book in the English language professing to teach this occult power, and is of immense advantage to the Merchant in selling goods, the Lawyer in gaining the confidence of Jurors, the Physicians in healing the sick; to Lovers, in securing the affections of the opposite sex, and all seeking riches or happiness. Price by mail, in cloth, $1,25; paper covers, $1. Agents wanted for this book, Private Medical Works, Perfumery, Jewelry, &c., who will receive samples free. Address, T. W. COMPOUND FLUID
Extract Catawba
GRAPE PILLS.

Component Parts—Fluid Extract Rhubard and Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Juice.

For Liver Complaints, Jaundice, Bilious Affections, Sick Or Nervous Headache, Costiveness Etc. Purely Vegetable, Containing No Mercury, Minerals Or Deleterious Drugs.

H

These Pills are the most delightfully pleasant purgative, superseding castor oil, salts, magnesia etc. There is nothing more acceptable to the stomach. They give tone, and cause neither nausea nor griping pains. They are composed of the finest ingredients. After a few days' use of them, such an invigoration of the entire system takes place as to appear miraculous to the weak and enervated, whether arising from imprudence or disease. H. T. Helmbold's Compound Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Pills are not sugar-coated, from the fact that sugar-coated Pills do not dissolve, but pass through the stomach without dissolving, consequently do not produce the desired effect. THE CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS, being pleasant in taste and odor, do not necessitate their being sugar-coated. PRICE FIFTY CENTS PER BOX.

E

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S

O

H. T. HELMBOLD'S

in all their stages, at little expense, little or no change in diet, no inconvenience, and no exposure. It causes a frequent desire, and gives strength to Urinate, thereby removing Obstructions, Preventing and Curing Strictures of the Urethra, Allaying Pain and Inflamation, so frequent in this class of diseases, and expelling all Poisonous matter.

Thousands who have been the victims of incompetent persons, and who have paid heavy fees to be cured in a short time, have found they have been deceived, and that the "Poison" has, by the use of "powerful astringents," been dried up in the system, to break out in a more aggravated form, and perhaps after Marriage.

Use HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU for all Affections and Diseases of the Urinary Organs, whether existing in Male or Female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing. PRICE ONE DOLLAR AND FIFTY CENTS PER BOTTLE.

L

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S IMPROVED ROSE WASH

cannot be surpassed as a Face Wash, and will be found the only specific remedy in every species of Cutaneous Affection. It speedily eradicates Pimples Spots, Scorbutic Dryness, Indurations of the Cutaneous Membrane, etc., dispels redness and incipient inflammation, hives, rash, moth patches, dryness of scalp or skin, frost bites, and all purposes for which salves or ointments are used; restore the skin to a state of purity and softness, and insures continued healthy action to the tissue of its vessels, on which depends the agreeable clearness and vivacity of complexion so much sought and admired. But however valuable as a remedy for existing defects of the skin, H. T. Helmbold's Rose Wash has long sustained its principle claim to undounded patronage, by possessing qualities which render it a Toilet Appendage of the most Superlative and Congenial character, combining in an elegant formula those prominent requisites, safety and efficacy—the invariable accompaniments of its use—as a Preservative and Refresher of the Complexion. It is an excellent Lotion for diseases of a Syphilitic Nature, and as an injection for diseases of the Urinary Organs, arising from habits of dissipation, used in connection with the EXTRACTS BUCHU, SARSAPARILLA, AND CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS, in such diseases as recommended, cannot be surpassed. PRICE, ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

OF SCHUYLKILL COUNTY.

THE NEW YORK RIOTS.

The true spirit of Democracy rises to the surface occasionally. The spirit of intolerance which prompted the head centre of Democracy to proclaim on the 12th ult., that mob law was supreme in New York; which instigated the mob to dictate to the authorities that Orangemen had no rights that another class of Democrats were bound to respect, and to which dictation the corrupt, cowardly and cringing Democratic officials of New York city were bound to render obedience, and which resulted in a most disgraceful riot on the 12th ult., which caused the blood to run through the principal streets, killed outright some sixty citizens and wounded about two hundred, is the same spirit of intolerance which prompted the Democracy to fire on the national flag at Fort Sumpter in the Spring of 1861. It is the same spirit of intolerance that stimulated them in their fiendish warfare upon the Union and Government, and it is the spirit which wholly possesses the Democracy (its leaders at least) both North and South to-day.

Then if you want mob law, ignorance and superstition to rule in this country, vote for the Democratic candidates; such as Tammany puts in the field for Pennsylvania Democrats. What were the Tammanyits doing in Harrisburg last winter, but planning the Democratic campaign for Pennsylvania this fall? Citizens of Pennsylvania if you cherish freedom, political and religious freedom, you will stand by the Republican party.

COL. M'CANDLESS' LETTER.

The following says the Philadelphia Press is the text of Col. Wm. M'Candless' letter, written in the dark days of 1864, declining to fight for the Union, and declining also the commission of Brigadier general in our armies. We note this fact as the partisan papers of the Democracy are punctilious as to the title of their candidate, insisting that he should be credited with the rank of an office whose duties he contemptuously refused.

If Col. M'Candless wishes to deny the authenticity of this letter our columns are at his disposal.

If he cannot deny it, and will not apologize for it, we think that Pennsylvania will say to him next October, as he said to her in the hour of her peril, that "post of honor is the private station."

No. 520 WALNUT ST., PHILADELPHIA.

SIR: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of a communication from the Secretary of War, dated the 21st inst., informing me of my promotion to the position of brigadier general of volunteers. This appointment I decline to accept. In order that my motives for so doing may be clearly understood, I will state that when those who administer this Government re-adopt the original intention of prosecuting this war for the restoration of the Union, I together with hundreds of officers and thousands of men—at present out of service—will be found ready and willing to return. Until such time I consider the post of honor to be the private station.

WM. M'CANDLESS.

To Brig. Gen. L. Thomas, Adjutant Gen. U. S. A., July 30, 1864.

HERE is an act of the Legislature which is worth reading, as it may prove useful to those not aware of the repeal of the law in regard to tax on occupations and salaries:

SECTION 1. Be it enacted, &c., That so much of the act approved April twenty-ninth, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, as imposing a tax of two per centum on every dollar of salary and emoluments over two hundred dollars, of persons holding public office or offices, held under corporations; also so much of the act as imposes a tax of one per centum on incomes of tradesmen, occupations and professions, over two hundred dollars is hereby repealed.

EVERY man who makes his living at a forge fire, a rolling mill, a furnace, or in any manufactory whatever, should not forget that the Democratic leaders and organs in Pennsylvania are the outspoken advocates of free trade, by which all such workmen are to be brought to a level with the pauper labor of the Old World. Votes for Democratic candidates are voices in favor of the reduction of the wages of American mechanics.

THE "People's Literary Companion," a monthly published at Augusta, Maine, by E. C. Allen & Co., will appear after the 7th of October next, as a weekly publication at the exceedingly low price of $2 per annum, of 52 numbers. The "Companion" is a large 8 page paper, (40 col.,) and is fast gaining place among the best Literary papers of the day. Address E. C. Allen & Co., Augusta, Maine.

NOTE paper, at Rankin's.

For the REPUBLICAN.

PENNSVALLEY DISSATISFIED.

COL. BROWN:—

Dear Sir.—Our political atmosphere is still cloudy and indicates a coming storm. Meek and Orvis are evidently assuming a shape, of a more positive character; if the Centre Hall Reporter and the Watchman in their recent issues mean anything. But yet we are not fully satisfied but what it may be a blind, and the matter be eventually settled by the pulling of straws. If so, I doubt the success of Orvis, unless he has better luck than he had when he pulled straws before. But in any event, we can't see anything in the apparent contest, but the predominance of the Ring candidates, and the pushing off the track, of every legislative candidate who is outside, as I suggested in my first letter. The excitement being created by the apparent rivalry between Meek and Orvis, has already nearly silenced the names of Munson, Hunter, Hoop and Fisher as candidates for the Legislature. And the success of either Meek or Orvis, is necessarily the triumph of the Ring. They still avoid discussing the question of the New Departure. It may be a matter of minor importance in their estimation; but we want to know where the head of the ticket in the county intends standing on this question of vital importance to the democracy, before we are committed to support it. If we put in nomination a Ring candidate for Legislature, and support him for that nomination, without first knowing his views on the New Departure, then we are almost obliged to support him through the entire campaign, whatever position he may take in relation to it. And he may, as matter of right, claim our continued support, because it was our right, to demand and obtain his views, before supporting him for the nomination. And some of us Pennsvalley democrats do demand it. We may settle down to the conclusion that the Ring, has again, or will triumph in the party nominations, and disposition of party patronage, so as to enure to its own interests. The flattering promises, heretofore made by the leaders of the ring, to quiet the discontents (although they say there are none now; yet the Departure No. 2, suggested in my last seems to touch some place) and secure the support of disappointed candidates, pledging future support, has been the means of placing in the field an increased number of candidates for every office to be filled. They can't all be nominated; yet the Ring candidates have made pledges of support at some time or other to every candidate in the field.

Then the question arises, who are to be nominated and who again disappointed? That is a question that the Ring have always heretofore, decided to suit themselves, and they will no doubt do so again. The parties to be nominated, and those to be defeated, will be measured by their standing and influence and their susceptibility of being again lashed into party service. Has not the Ring repeatedly promised the treasuryship at this very time to Dr. Dobbins, J. H. Barnhart, Col. Weaver and a number of others, and at the same time pledged it to Pennsvalley? Will the Ring give it to Thomas Yearick? If the purposes of the ring will be subserved by giving our valley the Treasurer, then Dobbins and Co., will be obliged to do as they have done before—go by the board. The position of the Ring in relation to the candidates for the other offices is about the same as that of the treasuryship. Then what are we laboring sons of democracy to do? If the Bellefonte clique, who run the party to suit their own interests almost exclusively, expect us to do their bidding, because of the necessity of sticking to the party, and hold over us the party lash; and they utterly disregard every promise and pledge of honor they ever made to us, will learn that the day for the great cry of "stick to the ticket" has gone by and lost its influence among honest and intelligent democrats who claim the privilege to think and act for themselves. And if the party makes a New Departure, abandon its staid and time-honored land-marks, and adopts the principles and policy of straight-out Republicanism, why should we respectable few, who have done the bidding of the party for years, be still subject to the party lash, and bound by the dogmas of the party, where the party itself has made a New Departure from them; and why should we, who have had so many fair promises made to us by the Bellefonte Moguls of the party, not begin to look after our own interests, make a Departure No. 2? Col., I speak knowingly when I say there are a number of good democrats throughout the county, who approve of a Departure No. 2 in Centre county, but you will excuse me for stating that we would be rather loath to support you as head of Departure No. 2 ticket.

DEMOCRAT FROM POTTER.

JULY 29th, 1871.

VISITOR.—Hon. F. Jordon, Secretary of the Commonwealth, paid our sanctum a visit on last Friday. We are sorry we were absent. Mr. Jordon is one of our leading men, and one of whom both the State and the Republican party may well feel proud. We hope he will come again.

For the REPUBLICAN.

DALTON OHIO, July 27th 1871.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—

Gents.—Perhaps a few lines now and then for the REPUBLICAN will not come amiss. The harvest is over and the summer nearly ended, and are we saved? Well we have reason to be thankful for being saved from sickness. There has been an abundant crop just harvested, although we have had a very wet harvest, the most of the grain has been housed in pretty good order. There has been a considerable quantity of wheat thrashed, the yield as far as I have heard, rates from 18 to 27 bushels per acre, and brings in market from $1,10 to $1,15 per bushel. The oats and a large portion of the corn promise a large yield. Now in looking over the REPUBLICAN a few days ago I discovered an account of some big grain, and as you wanted to know if any body could beat it. I think I can quite easily. I have oats that I have just harvested that measure five feet nine and a half inches in length, and has from 90 to 140 grains to the head, we counted several that runs from 100 to 130, and one that had 140 grains on one head. Also I measured several stalks of corn, each measuring over 11 feet, the longest being eleven feet 5½ inches, and just 7 feet from the ground to the point of the ear. Now "how's that for high?" Some may think this account too high and windy to be true, but I am prepared to substantiate every word of it. We will have our big grain in readiness to make a boat to ship the Democrats up Salt River in October. Now if any one can over reach this, let us know and we will try again, for we have corn still growing and I don't know when or where it will stop; but enough of that for this time. Some few weeks back as Henry and William Gaddis were on their way to Orvill, 9 miles from here, their horse frightened at the cars, and turning short round, threw William out, bruising him considerably, the horse still run down ahead of the train till the wagon run over some ties throwing Henry out in front of the cars. The cow catcher shoved him along cutting and bruising him in a shocking manner. He was cut across the breast so that by lifting his arm you could see his lungs. He leaves a wife and several children in very poor circumstances. One day last week as G. G. Grady's Circus was showing in Massillon, one of the actors by the name of Torres went up in a Balloon. He went up so high that the lookers on said the balloon looked about the size of a man's fist. He then came down very fast, performing some great freaks all the time, and from some cause, before he got down he fell out of the balloon, falling into an old reservoir and before assistance could be had, life was no more. He was buried in the Catholic burying ground near Massillon. Thus they go one by one from time to eternity, to reap the reward of their labors whether they be good or evil, keeping us in the rememberance of being ready when the summons comes, which must come to all sooner or later. As there is no repentence in the grave nor pardon offered to the dead, let all do their work while it is called to day, for behold the night cometh wherein no man can work, and many go, without a moments warning which is a sure evidence of the necessity of being ready.

S. SMITH.

WANTS AND NEEDS OF THE DEMOCRACY.

The Democratic party wants power.
It needs patriotism.
It wants free trade.
It needs more home industry.
It wants more repeaters at elections.
It needs more honesty at the ballot box.
It wants ignorant and submissive voters.
It needs educated and independent thinkers.
It wants unlimited control of public affairs through the supremacy of States.
It needs practical and cheerful submission to the Supreme laws and Constitution of the United States.
It wants the disfranchisement and restoration to practical slavery of the negro.
It needs the enfranchisement of its followers from the ignorance and tyranny of oligarchical leaders.
It wants to be trusted.
It needs to be distrusted.
It wants more Ku-Klux.
It needs more hangmen.
It wants more whiskey.
It needs more water.
It wants to repudiate.
It needs to be repudiated.
It wants the vote of traitors.
It needs the approbation of loyal citizens.
It wants to govern the country.
It needs to be governed to save the country.
It wants rebel leaders.
It needs loyal followers.
It wants a new departure.
It needs a new conscience.
It wants to restore the dead past.
It needs to appreciate the living present.—Mercer Dispatch.

TWO LOST CHILDREN.—We have received, says the Lancaster Intelligencer, the following letter, which we publish out of compassion for the afflicted parent, hoping that our exchanges may copy it and thus aid in restoring to a mother her long lost children:

Pink Hill P. O., Lenoir Co., N. C. July 18, 1871.—I, Mary Lawson; was living in Newbern, North Carolina, during the war. I was taken sick in the year 1864, and did not expect to live. I had two boys, my own children, and having no other relation in Newbern, I gave my oldest child, Isaac Lawson (at this time 16 years old), to a man who said his name was Milt Holland. and said he lived in Ohio; and I gave my other child, John Lawson (about 13 year old now), to a man whose name I don't recollect; I think he was a Colonel, and said he lived in Michigan. After a hard spell of sickness I recovered, and in the name of God I do ask every man and lady to help me to find my dear children. I am poor, but I will reward any person who may find either of them.—Isaac Lawson is slim built. John Lawson is heavy built, with large head and large eyes. I was raised in Duplin county N. C. If any person can give me information of my children, they will please address. MARY LAWSON,
Pink Hill P. O., Lenoir county, North Carolina.

The Press On The New York Riot.

[From the Philadelphia Press.]

"Tammany has added the crime of cowardice to its long list of defaults, and to-day New York needs Gen. Butler again to govern it. If the city government is not able to keep the peace, let it abdicate in favor of the party of a free people who can. The spmpathies of the American people, who condemn alike the Orange and Ribbon fanaticism will lean to-day toward that interest which temporarily represents the great principles of self government and free expression.

"And in closing there is one reflection of a national character which forces itself—cowardice killed the Democracy in 1861; it will never forgive those repeated departures backward."

[From the Philadelphia Post.]

"Now, this organized mob of Irish Catholic Democrats deliberately tell the Mayor whom their votes elected, that this parade shall not take place. There could be no greater insult offered the magistrate of a great city than this. Mayor Hall has not the spirit to resent it. Yielding to the mob, he orders his police to prevent the parade. The bullies of the bawdy house, burglars of the Tombs, and thieves of the Five Points have by this infamous action been given the right to rule as they wish."

[From the Philadelphia Bulletin.]

"Politically, as well as morally, these New York officials have committed the grossest blunder. New York has long been ruled by the worst mob in America; but it has remained for these gentlemen to make the open confession of the fact, and to invite this fearful element to assume openly the control that it has heretofore wielded with some shadow of the semblance of law. It remained for these unwise politicians to strike at the great American sentiment which sets up the freedom of action and opinion as the first of all human rights, and to array, not only in New York, but throughout the country, elements of antagonism that can come into collision only with the most terrible consequences."

[From the Philadelphia Day.]

"We are bound to say that this humiliating surrender stamps the men who made it with a cowardice so abject that there is no name for it. It is, as we set out by saying, a sowing of the whirlwind, and the harvest cannot be other than the destruction of order. Better the demonstration of a mob than surrender to its insolent demands for a mob in action may be put down, while surrender without a blow invites a distemper for which there is no remedy."

[From the Cincinnatti Commercial.]

"Men who take no interest in such displays, who vote them a nuisance, and who would prefer that none of them were permitted, will be likely to study carefully the causes which are at work and which have become powerful enough to dictate to the government of the largest city in the Union, and threaten bloodshed and disaster if not permitted to have their way. It is a bad business, first and last."

[From the Cincinnatti Gazette.]

"It seems to be decreed in the city of New York that the Catholics may forbid Protestant processions in the streets. The reasons alleged for preventing or massacreing this Protestant procession are no stronger than may be urged against Catholic or partisan or many other processions. The real reason is the ungovernable temper of the Irish Catholic people, and their constitutional inability to comprehend that liberty is a thing for all to enjoy. Their notion of freedom is the right of the mob to use the shilalah on any who differ with them. They are giving us a specimen of what the Irish Republic of the Fenians would be. The temper which these Irishmen exhibit would make popular government a pandemonium, and despotism a relief imperatively necessary."

[From the New York Standard.]

"As a matter of interference with legitimate rights, there can be but one opinion of it. But as regards Tammany's influence in the Democratic party, it was a fatal political mistake; and as regards the maintenance of law and order, it created a wicked precedent for rowdy agitation and threats whenever the dangerous classes have a real or imaginary grievances. Mayor Hall, you have played a card which has exposed your whole hand, and you are at the mercy of your antagonists. Your party, for whom you are playing, had better throw up the game at once and wait patiently for a fresh deal and another stake."

[From the Newark, N. J., Courier.]

"To obey the dictates of such a mob must be a fearful sacrifice for a little power if the rulers at New York had the smallest atom of manhood and self respect. Is it any wonder that thousands of the best citizens of New York are annually removing to New Jersey and other places, outside of a government which so objectly confesses itself the mere slave to do the will of such a power."

[From the Chicago Republican.]

"How long the decent people of New York may be content to hold their lives and liberties thus at the mercy of an overbearing foreign faction or to tolerate the truckling of their authorities to the ruffians who burned orphan asylums in 1863, and shot down men, women and children in cold blood at Central Park a year ago to-day, we do not know. But we are clearly of the opinion that sort of thing had better not be attempted anywhere else. If New York, through the bigotry, cowardice and corruption of her officials, is henceforth to be counted as a dependency of Ireland, the rest of the country still belongs to the American people, and is under American institutions and laws."

[From the Chicago Post.]

"The United States of America, recently a stalwart and somewhat boastful Republic, has surrendered to a few Irish Catholic desperadoes of New York city, and the liberty cap has been formally delivered to Tammany Hall. The melancholy event took place yesterday, and was celebrated in an order of Superintendent Kelso, under direction of Oakey Hall, forbidding the procession of Orange men from turning out to-morrow.—When the municipal authorities of the largest city in America become the servide lacqueys of men who have openly drilled for weeks for the purpose of filling the streets with blood, there is no demand too extravagant for the latter to make or the former to concede."

[From the Chicago Tribune.]

"The question will be asked, By what right is one society of Irishmen refused a privilege conceded to all other societies of Irishmen? And the question cannot be satisfactorily answered except by admitting the moral cowardice of the authorities. This cowardice will have its fruits. The American people, who have no particular predelictions for or against either of these opposing factions so defiantly presenting themselves as foreigners, will take up the cause of the proscribed and, next year, not only in New York but in Philadelphia and all other cities there will be a popular turn out to sustain civil and religious equality, and of so imposing a character as to utterly defy any interference by mobs."

[From the Troy N. Y., Whig.]

"One thing must be understood. The highways and streets of our cities are just as free to Orangemen as to Roman Catholics. All have common and equal rights and each must respect the right of others. He who attempts to deprive another of his public right is an enemy to all, and will be punished."

REPINERS.—Never whine over what you may suppose to be loss of opportunities. Every man who wishes it may educate himself. Many a servant has listened with attention while his master's children were saying their letters, and, by putting together what he thus learned, acquired the elements of spelling. If a man has a strong thirst for knowledge, it matters not where his lot may be cast, he will become an educated man. The first step to self-improvement is, to leave off "crying over spilt milk." Let the past go, and bend every energy to the improvement of the present.

A YOUNG minister East of us, sitting by his girl, with whom he was quarreling, petulantly remarked that she was nothing. She said she wouldn't admit that, but she would say that she was next to nothing.

THEY ARE NOT A VILE
FANCY DRINK,

Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Roots and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and LIFE GIVING PRINCIPLE a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to direction and remain long unwell.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys, and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION. Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the Stomach and stimulate the torpid liver and bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald-Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effects.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TAPE and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. For full directions, read carefully the circular around each bottle.

WHITE FISH, Herring, Mackerel, &c., at BURNSIDE & THOMAS.

A Plank After Shipwreck.

I want to tell you about it. I am ashamed to tell I was an awful drunkard once. I'll tell you what turned me round. I was terribly dry one morning and I wanted some rum; I handed my youngest boy, only six years old, some coppers and a jug, and told him to go and get me a pint of rum. It was a real cold morning, and Willie's trowsers were thin and ragged, and he had no great coat or mittens. Willie didn't want to go; but I scolded him, and he started a few steps, and then stopped and said:

"Father, I wish you would give me a cent to buy a stick of candy."

I told him to go along, and not bother me about a stick of candy. The little fellow began to cry, and he stammered out:

"Father, you never give me any money to buy candy. Tommy Jones (he was the rumseller's boy) has candy every day, and he says I can't have any because my father's a drunkard!"

I felt as though lightning had struck me. "Good God!" said I, "has it come to this? Have I been paying my money to support the rumseller and his wife in luxury, while my own little boy could not have a single cent for candy? Yes, I am a drunkard; but old Jones' children won't sneer at Willie and me any more."

I called my boy back, and took the jug and the money. Here are the coppers, said he, taking them from his pocket—five of them; I will keep them as long as I live, and when I die leave them as a sacred legacy to my children. I have got six, and a good wife besides. You don't look like a drunkard now! Thank God, I am saved, and my house is happy! I will do what I can to save others, stranger—that jug don't go to Jones' now, and my boy's as smart as his!

Among the most popular and useful journals of its class in the country is Leffel's Illustrated Mechanical News, published at the extremely low price of Fifty Cents per annum. Each number contains from eight to twelve illustrations, with a large amount of reading matter pertaining to all branches of mechanical science—the paper being devoted solely to this class of topics. The July number, now on our table, has some especially attractive features, including a valuable illustrated article on Mill Dams, and two reproductions of ancient engravings, showing the state of the mechanic arts in the seventeenth century. A continued series of these interesting antique cuts is promised, the originals being in the possession of the publishers, Messrs. James Leffel & Co., Springfield, O. This firm, already widely known as manufacturers of the celebrated Leffel Turbine water wheel, have now achieved an equal success as publishers, in an important branch of periodical literature.

Our Weakness.—There is nothing that helps a man more in his conduct through life than a knowledge of his own characteristic weakness (which, guarded against, becomes his strength) as there is nothing that tends more to the success of a man's talents than his knowing the limits of his faculties, which are thus concentrated on some practical object. One man can do but one thing. Universal pretentions end in nothing. Or, as Butler has it, wit "requires as much again to govern it." There are those who have (for want of this self-knowledge) gone strangely out of their way, and others who have never found it.

Grape Wine.—We take pleasure in directing the attention of the public to Speer's celebrated Port Grape Wine, a pure and unadulterated grape wine, upon which every one having occasion to use wine may most implicitly rely.

The wine is made at Speer's vineyards Passaic, N. J. It has a rich flavor, mellow juiciness, and brilliant color and is not only an agreeable beverage, but highly beneficial in its properties. We know this to be the fact, having tried the article thoroughly. Use Speer's Bottled Wines with his signature on the cork, and you are sure of getting a pure article.—Davenport Democrat.

For sale by Druggists.

A Lesson From Children.—Children may teach us one blessed, one enviable art—the art of being easily happy. Kind nature has given them that useful power of accommodation to circumstances which compensate for many external disadvantages, and it is only by injudicious management that it is lost. Give him but a moderate portion of food and kindness, and the peasant's child is happier than the duke's; free from artificial wants, unsatiated by indulgence, all nature ministers to his pleasure; he can carve felicity from a bit of twig, or fish for it successfully in a mud puddle.

Be Cheerful.—It is better to tread the path of life cheerfully, skipping lightly over the thorns and briars that obstruct your way, than to sit down on every hedge, lamenting your hard fate. The thread of a cheerful man's life spins out much longer than that of a man who is continually sad and desponding. Prudent conduct in the concerns of life is highly necessary; but if distress succeed, dejection and despair will not afford relief. The best thing to be done, when evil comes upon us is not lamentation but action—not to sit and suffer but to rise and seek the remedy.

COMPLETION OF THE PACIFIC RAILROAD.

GREAT RUSH TO STERNBERG'S.

Sung to the tune of Yankee Doodle.

The Great Pacific Railroad's laid,
From ocean unto ocean,
And now complete connections made,
An enterprising notion.

The mighty work at last is done,
So speedy and brisk, oh!
And now in ten days we can run
From here to San Francisco.

No more we take the ancient route,
The stage, a horrid slow thing;
It banged the passengers about
And wore out all their clothing.

Chorus, for the end of each verse:

The Great Pacific Railroad laid,
From ocean unto ocean,
And we buy clothes from A. Sternberg,
A most delightful notion.

Through passengers by the Pacific Railroad will call at the store of A. Sternberg, before starting, and provide themselves with a complete outfit of Spring and Summer clothing, the very best assortment of which will always be found at A. Sternberg's Store.

People who travel by other routes, and also people who, instead of travelling by any route at all, prefer to stay at home, can find the most superior and seasonable garments, for every occasion, of every variety, and at the lowest price.

Do not fail to call and examine our stock before purchasing elsewhere; if you do not, we are sure you will be sorry that you did not. Our goods are put down to the lowest figure. We sell whole suits, according to quality.

BELLEFONTE REPUBLICAN.

BELLEFONTE, PA.

Wednesday Morning, August 2, 1871.

REPUBLICAN DELEGATE ELECTION AND COUNTY CONVENTION.

The Republican voters of the several Boroughs and Townships of Centre county are requested to meet at their usual places of holding elections, on SATURDAY, AUGUST 5th, 1871, for the purpose of chosing the usual number of delegates to which each Borough and Township is entitled; said delegates to meet in County Convention at the Court House in the Borough of Bellefonte, on

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 30th, 1871,

at 1 o'clock, P. M., to place in nomination a ticket to be supported at the ensuing October election, and to transact such other business as may bedeemed necessary.

JAS. H. RANKIN,
Chairman Co. Committee.

Bellefonte, July 24, 1871.

POSTPONED.—As will be seen by the above call, the Republican convention has been changed from August 9th, to Wednesday, August 30th, (Court week,) at 1 o'clock P. M. This has been done in compliance with the wishes of many of the leading men in the several townships of the county. Let there be a full convention on Wednesday the 30th inst. The delegate elections will be held as stated on the 5th inst.

JAS. H. RANKIN,
Chairman County Com.

HOME NEWS.

OBSERVER—Your communication will appear next week.

CROWDED OUT.—Last week we paid a visit to Snow Shoe, but our notice of the trip has been unavoidably crowded out—Also our article giving our opinion in regard to the formation of an independent ticket in this county, this fall.

KICKED BY A HORSE.—Jonathan Schenck Esq. of Howard tp. was kicked on the leg by a horse on Monday evening the 24th ult., The leg was not broken, however, but was severely bruised. We are pleased to learn that Mr Schenck is able to be about again.

F. P. GREEN.—It is astonishing with what success F. P. Green has met, since he commenced as a druggist in this town. Few men have done better, and he has no hesitancy in saying that he owes it all to printers ink, and being punctual in business. His Drug Store is a Model.

GIFT ENTERPRISE.—The Unionville Cadets will hold a "Gift Enterprise" about the last of August, for the purpose of raising money to purchase a new flag. They will have some blanks of course, but the prizes will be two barrels of flour and one set of cane bottom chairs to the lucky ones. The date of the drawing will be given in our next.

DOGS.—At the Union Meeting in the Presbyterian church, last Sunday evening, the dogs played quite a conspicuous part. Two of them, taking their position just in front of the sacred desk, itched and scratched, rolled and frolicked about until the close of the service. A friend at our side asks: "What do you think, Mr. Editor, about church-men and church dogs in company together at a Union meeting? Come, these are dog days, just the time for you to express your opinion on this subject."

BITTEN BY A HORSE.—Last Saturday a week at Shingletown, Mr. Benj. Stem, of Harris twp., suffered a severe casualty from being bitten by a horse belonging to him. It seems, while at the blacksmith shop, the horse becoming ferocious and unmanageble, seized Mr. Stem, by the fore-arm, hurling him to the ground, and leaping upon him. He would undoubtedly, have been killed, had not the by-standers driven off the horse by severe blows. As it was, his arm was severely smashed, being bitten through and through and both bones broken. We are glad to learn, however, that Mr. Stem is recovering.

NARROW ESCAPE.—Abram Wirts, of the firm of Curry & Wirts, manufacturers of woolen goods, Spruce Creek, came nigh loosing his life at Locust Mills, Huston twp., this county, on the 25th ult. The particulars as we learn them from our reporter are as follows:

Being on the mountain side of the Bald Eagle Creek with his wool wagon, his horse took fright and dashed at a furious rate towards the bridge, (an old dilapidated concern that has the planks removed for a space of some eight or ten feet to prevent anything, crossing over.

Mr. Wirts seeing his danger jumped from the wagon and escaped with a few slight cuts and bruises. The horse arriving at the bridge, turned suddenly and leaped over the bank twelve feet to the bottom of the creek. The wagon being loaded with goods the boxes were broken and the goods scattered in every direction, But strange to say the horse with the wagon kept dashing on at locomotive speed till he arrived at the railroad and struck a two horse wagon that was going the same direction, this broke the harness, disengaging him from the wagon, after which he ran about one mile and brought up at the store of J. F. Williams. On the whole it was a narrow escape, for had Mr. Wirts not jumped from the wagon he could not have escaped with his life. The horse is considerably cut about the hind legs, and the harness and wagon badly broken.

RAILROAD MEETING.—A meeting of the stock holders of the L. C. & S. C., railroad was held at the Old Fort, in Potter township, on Saturday, July 22d, 1871. David Gilliland, was called to the chair, and J. T. Black, chosen secretary.

Mr. Joseph Shirk addressed the meeting, urging that a narrow guage road would not suit and was not what the business interests, or people of Pennsvalley demanded. He also charged dereliction of duty upon the officers of the company.

Other pertinent addresses followed, when the following resolutions were reported and unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the road is not located on the shortest route, nor in accordance with the wishes of a majority of the stockholders.

Resolved, That the Old Fort or Centre Hill route would be shorter, and would accommodate a large majority of the stockholders of Potter township, and that it would be the best as being more central and more convenient for people to get to the depot.

Resolved, That the understanding of the stockholders was that the road was to be a through road from Lewisburg to Spruce Creek or Tyrone: that the stock was subscribed in good faith, with the understanding that the road was to be a common or four feet eight and half inch guage, and that, under present circumstances, we are opposed to a narrow or the three feet gauge.

The vote on the above resolutions was unanimous, 282 shares of stock being cast in their favor and none against them.

Signed,
DAVID GILLILAND, Pres't.
J. T. BLACK, Sec'y.

PATENT RIGHT SWINDLES.—Our exchanges complain of the swarm of patent right venders, who are now swindling the farmers in their localities. The farmers who allow themselves to be fleeced are not to be pitied. We are frequently requested to warn the public against the numerous swindles which prevail throughout the country, and have tried to protect the people from the wiles of sharpers until we are tired. The press is powerless to prevent the impositions from being partially successful, for it is a notorious fact, that the swindlers make their richest hauls from the ranks of those who are too mean to take a newspaper, but who are rascally enough to cheat their neighbor whenever they can get a chance. Every farmer should be a subscriber to his county paper, and then he would stand a fair chance of being posted as to the tricks played upon rustics by the beats of the cities.—Gazette and Bulletin.

TALL CORN.—Mr. Robert Robison, of Huston twp., has a field of twelve acres of corn on a hillside that is so steep you would almost think he had stood it on end for the purpose of farming both sides. Some of this corn measures 13 feet 3½ inches in height, with ears 7 feet 7½ inches from the ground. This of course is some of the tallest; but to take the whole field it is as good, if not the best field of corn, I have seen this season. Mr. Robison bought and moved on this farm a few years since. It was then so poor that it would scarcely grow mullen stocks, and not a fence on it that would have turned a crippled jack ass. But with hope, faith, patience, perseverance, clover, manure and plenty of hard knocks, he has brought it to such a state of cultivation as to produce the above result. LOCUST.

"Little Men," at Rankin's.

WHORTLEBERRIES and berries are plenty, many wagon loads repairing to the patches hereabouts daily. In Clearfield they must give this branch of industry a good deal of attention, for the Republican states that 200 vehicles may be seen most any fine day tied up along the turnpike near Curwensville. Parties from Indiana and Jefferson counties come thither and encamp, bringing kettles, cans and all the paraphernalia for preserving the fruit on the spot. It is estimated that over a thousand persons have been engaged on a patch only three miles square in a single day.—Philipsburg Journal.

IF your children have worms, use Green's celebrated Worm Expeller. It has no superior.

DRUM CORPS.—The Unionville Cadets have organized a new Drum Corps. The members are Robert Cambridge Fifer; Orlando Hutton and Jno. G. Geary, Snare drummers; Geo. Brown bass drummer. The drums have just been purchased in Phila. of Hostman Bros., & Co. at a cost of $40.00. The cadets are in a flourishing condition and ready to make music for either political party in the coming political campaign.

DENTISTRY.—We are happy to state for the sake of those who are suffering from bad teeth, that Dr. Belford will arrive in town on the 3d inst. (to morrow) and remain two weeks. We have spoken so frequently of Dr. Belford's abilities as a Dentist that it is unnecessary to add any thing more at this time. Call at his office over Linn & Wilson's Drug Store.

THE HARVEST HOME OF AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, PA.

TRIAL OF MOWERS, TRIAL OF REAPERS, TRIAL OF PLOWS—ADMISSION OF LADIES TO THE COLLEGE COURSE.

The Harvest Home exercise of the Agricultural College of this State and County were held Wednesday, Thursday and Friday the 26th, 27th and 28th of July. Wednesday was given to the examination of the farm, its buildings, crops and surroundings. The order of the day, however, was the trial of mowers, which, through failure somewhere of its being made public, was not so large ly attended as last year. Still quite a respectable number of farmers from the neighborhood and from a distance were present to witness the trial. Upland, timothy and clover was the grass cut, and the reapers entered were Champion, Champion Combined, Hubbard, Excelsior, Miamasburg Excelsior, Dodge and World. The merits of the machines were examined by the committee with special reference to draft, width of cut, ease of management, durability, adaptability to cutting high or low, quality of work done and facility of adaptation to uneven surfaces.

For the following test of the draft of the different machines your correspondent is indebted to the chairman of the Committee of award, as he is also for other facts:

Champion combined,	width of cut	5ft,	draft	300
" Single mower,	" "	4ft 6in	"	250
Dodge Combined,	" "	4ft 5in	"	260
Hubbard,	" "	4ft 6in	"	350
Excelsior,	" "	4ft 6in	"	300
Miamasburg Excelsior,	" "	4ft 6in	"	350
World,	" "	4ft 5in	"	375

The premium for the best mower was awarded to the Champion. The report concludes:

"All the machines exhibited however were worthy of commendation and several of them so nearly balanced in points of excellence that it was very difficult to decide between them, and we have thought no farmer could go far amiss in purchasing either of them."

In the evening a lecture on combustion, with experiments, was delivered by Prof. Brenneman, of the college. The illumination of the front of the College building succeeded the lecture, when more than fourteen hundred candles sent through so many panes of glass their rays of light into the darkness without, making a scene which will not soon be forgotten by the beholders.

Thursday was the day appointed for the trial of Reapers. Long before the hour had arrived a vast crowd had gathered to behold the scene. Farmers from, almost every part of the county and from other counties, and quite a number of ladies were present. Two o'clock at length arrived. The Champion was the first to lead off. Suffice it to say that all the machines which mowed the day previous, reaped this day, with one additional machine, the Marsh Harvester, which seemed to be the centre of attraction. Its peculiarity consisted in this, that the grain after it was cut, falling upon a properly attached revolving canvass, was carried to the opposite side of the reaper and dropped upon a platform where two men stood ready to recieve and bind it.

It is indeed a most difficult matter to say which machine did the best work. It was the opinion, of not a few, that the Hubbard was not surpassed, if indeed it was equalled, by its rivals. In the judgment of the Committee, however, the World received the premium for the best dropper and the Champion for the best self-rake—the cutting of each being considered equally good.

In the evening another lecture was delivered by Prof. Tuttle, of Harvard, and former graduate of the Agricultural College.

On Friday, a trial of plows took place for which quite a number were entered.

The Trustees of the College have decided to admit ladies, next term, to the advantages which the course of study that the College affords.

Just here your correspondent may be permitted to add that no citizen of the State who loves its institutions, and especially no citizen of Centre Co., should be indifferent to the interests of the Agricultural College. Whatever may have been their animosities heretofore, or however much they may have differed in their judgment with respect to the management of some of its affairs, let them forget their differences for the present and unite in giving their support to its friends, and seek to raise the institution, by their patronage, and encouragement, to that solid basis which will make its success complete and to which let us hope it is now steadily advancing.

TO SICKLY PERSONS.—To persons who are weak and sickly, the use of Speer's Port Grape Wine will restore their health and strength. Physicians, clergymen and temperance advocates should encourage the use of the Port Grape Wine, and thus aid the cause of temperance and moderation. We especially recommend it to families for its purity, exquisite flavor and healthy properties. Medical men certify to its valuable medicinal powers. We understand that Mr. Speer has been for years engaged in preparing and perfecting it, and that it requires a four years process before it is fit for market.—N. Y. Baptist.

CONVOCATION OF WILLIAMSPORT.—The regular meeting of this Convocation was held in Bellefonte, the first service being on Tuesday evening, June 4th, in the new St. John's Church.

The sermon was preached by the Rev. J. Milton Peck, of Danville, from Jeremiah, vi. 16—"Stand ye in the way," etc.

On Wednesday, at 10½ A. M., there was Morning Prayer, the Litany, and Holy Communion, with a sermon by the Rev. A. H. Boyle, of Shamokin, from Psalm lxxiii. 24—"Thou shalt guide me," etc.—a most practical and instructive discourse, and entirely extemporaneous. The rector was celebrant, assisted by Messrs. Teller, Hewitt and Peck.

At half past 7 P. M., Evening Prayer, with a sermon by the Rev. A. Brooks, of Williamsport, from Genesis, i, 1., and St. John, i. 1—showing, in an interesting and forcible manner, the hope and faith of the Christian to rest upon the Creator, the creating, and eternal Word, through the eternal Spirit proceeding from both.

The business sessions were at nine and three, on Wednesday. The Rev. Wm. Paret, D. D., Rector of Christ Church, Williamsport, was elected Dean; and the Rev. J. Milton Peck, secretary and treasurer for the year. With one exception all the members present renewed their parish pledges for the missionary work of the convocation.

In this way, with the help of the diocesan Board, the important parish of Northumberland has been sustained during the past year, and favored with the services of an earnest minister, the Rev. Wm. Moore.

The Rev. Dr. Paret read an instructive and suggestive essay upon the subject of early Confirmation, eliciting a general and pleasant discussion. The constitution of the convocation was thoroughly revised and amended.

After the acceptance of the treasurer's report, and the appointment of the next meeting at Lock Haven, in September next, the convocation adjourned.

It would be a very incomplete notice of this pleasant and profitable meeting of the Convocation, not to speak of the beautiful church just completed in Bellefonte, and now awaiting consecration in July. Situated among the lovely scenery of the Bald Eagle Ridge, it is one of those gems of architecture, which are now here and there greeting the eye of the traveller in many parts of our land. It is a solid and elegant structure of stone, with fine heavy buttresses, and all surmounted with a graceful spire and its golden cross. Just within the entrance in its true and proper position, is a richly carved stone font, the gift of a Sunday school class.

Bellefonte people are noble and generous, and their kind and overflowing hospitality, with the admirable arrangements of the rector, will long be among the pleasantest memories of the clergymen so recently enjoying them. Indeed, much did we regret when the hour came for us to separate for our several homes. —Churchman.

PIC-NIC.—The Milesburg M. E. Sunday School indulged in a real live and pleasant pic-nic on Saturday the 15th ult. At an early hour the members of the school began to move around in groups and by 9 A. M., about 150 were in the school room ready and awaiting marching orders.

After singing a few appropriate verses and prayer by Rev. J. W. Cleaver, the school formed in procession, and led by the Unionville Martial Band, moved through the principal street and thence to the grove (in front of the M. E. Church,) around by Capt. J. M. Green, a real prince of good fellows, who gave the use of the enclosed ground for the occasion with the greatest good will. Once in the grove, all formality was laid aside, and "enjoyment" was the word passed along the line. In the mean time wagons came in laden with good things prepared for the occasion, and at 12 M., the martial band sounded the dinner call and the company, now grown to hundreds, began to group together by families and classes, and partook of the repast with real gusto. Dinner over, all hands returned to their amusements and enjoyments which continued well through the afternoon.

By the way the Unionville Martial Band under the control of Mr. L. Barthurst, is a real live institution. It is composed principally of little boys, who in their unique little uniforms look like "men prepared for war," and their music is good and soul stirring. It is an independent organization and their services can be had at any time by addressing Mr. L. Bathurst, Unionville Pa.

FOR SALE.—Great Bargains are now to be obtained by persons wishing to purchase first rate farms. One farm upon which is erected a good brick house and brick grist mill is offered at $21,000 on ten years time. Another farm of 150 acres in the same neighborhood at $12,000, eight years time. And still another for $14,000, eight years, in which to make the payments. For further particulars inquire at the REPUBLICAN office. v3n27-ts.

Every thing in the line of medicine can be purchased at Green's.

HINTS TO NEWSPAPER CORRESPONDENTS.—When you have written all you have to say run it over and see if there are not some sentences that could be spared without serious injury. If there are, out with them. We are often compelled to decline good articles because we cannot make room for them. Half a column has ten chances, where two columns have one, and three none. Try to discourage us little as possible, and if you must condemn, let your facts be stronger than your words. When you write, always give us your real name, which is required as a guarantee of good faith, not for publication. He is a coward who would ask us to bear the responsibility of others. If you send us word that you "have no time to correct, and have written in haste," we shall put your manuscript in the fire. Why should you throw upon us the task of correcting your scrawl, when we are obliged to slight our own work for want of time? Give us facts, incidents, occurrences at the earliest moment, and we shall be grateful, though you wrote with a pudding-stick; but if you attempt logic or sentiment, do it up right instead of leaning on us.—Gazette and Bulletin.

LIGHT BREAKING.—We understand that Mr. Crittenden, our S. S. Missionary succeeded in getting a Sunday School organized in the upper part of Clinton county, among a notorious people known by the name of Gaines and Smoke. Their school house is well filled every Sabbath, extra seats have been provided. Parents and children sit side by side learning to spell and read in the Testament. The superintendent of the school, Mr. John Geddes, is much encouraged with the good behaviour and diligence of his scholars. Last Sabbath all, both old and young, were occupied as teachers or learners. There were no idlers, except one spectator from a distance. We are glad to know that these people whom it was not possible for our military officers, in the time of the late war, to recruit for service in the Union Army, can be so successfully recruited to form a Union Sunday School.

DRUG STORE.—Messrs Linn & Wilson, are doing everything in their power to make their Drug Store attractive, as well as to make it a pleasure to every one to call and see them. Their toilet soaps, brushes, and fancy articles generally cannot be surppassed in the town, while their drugs are pure and fresh and their stock of patent medicines unlimited. Their Soda Fountain is in full play and just here we must not forget to say that O. A. Kinsloe, their gentlemanly clerk has just received a large variety of syrups. He says the people shall not go thirsty for want of variety. We give the names of the different syrups as follows:

Grenadine, Ambrosia, Coffee, Ginger, Lemon, Nectar, Orange, Orgeat, Raspberry, Sarsaparilla, Strawberry, Vanilla, Pine-apple, Sperbet, Grape, Eau De Vie. Call and try Mr. Kinsloe's syrups.

LOFTY CORN.—W. F. Courter, Esq., of Eagleville, has about two acres of corn, which was planted on the 24th of May, and it is now ready for roasting ears. Some of the stalks measured 14 feet high when it had only been growing 60 days since it came up. Roasting ears in 60 days and stalks 14 feet high: Mr. Courter calls this Republican corn. Can Pennsvalley or Nittany beat it? If so let us hear. It puts the corn of our Republican friend S. Smith in the shade. Ohio cannot beat the old Keystone.
